

TWO GO TO SING SING FOR BLAZE IN A BIG PICTURE FRAME HOUSE

Horowitz, Head of Concern, and Rothenberg, Who Started the Fire, Are Sentenced.

Charles S. Horowitz, president of the New York Picture and Frame Company, which had a store at No. 140 Fulton street until it was burned out June 14, 1911, was today sentenced by Justice Goff in the criminal part of the Supreme Court to not less than two and a half and not more than four and a half years in Sing Sing for submitting false claims of fire loss to insurance companies. It was shown at his trial that Horowitz had removed the $50,000 stock of the company to another building just before the fire.

Abraham Levy asked that execution of sentence be stayed until Horowitz could close up his business affairs. Justice Goff refused to grant the request. The justice also remarked on letters sent to him by "men who should have known better" asking mercy for Horowitz. The writers, he said, assumed to know more than the jury and showed that they were not acquainted with the substance of the testimony taken in the trial.

Bruno Rothenberg, convicted of having set the store on fire, was sentenced by Justice Goff to not less than seven and a half or more than eleven and a half years in Sing Sing.

"The Court has reason to believe," said Justice Goff, "that this is not the only fire started by you in this city. Through the inadvertence of a jury you were found guilty only of arson in the third degree. In that you were fortunate."

Rea Director of New Haven.

Samuel Rea, who was elected President of the Pennsylvania Railroad when James McCrea resigned that post, was today elected a director of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad to fill the place vacated by Mr. McCrea, whose resignation from the directorate was received today.

HICKEY GUARDED BY POLICE AS JUDGE SENTENCES HIM.

BUFFALO, Dec. 22.—J. Frank Hickey, convicted of murder in the second degree for the killing of Joseph Joseph, Oct. 12, 1911, was sentenced today to confinement in State's prison at Auburn for an indeterminate sentence, the minimum of which was twenty years and the maximum life. Hickey answered the formal questions put to him in an unfaltering voice. He said he was forty-seven years old, was born in Lowell, Mass., and had once, when eighteen years old, been convicted of petty larceny. He said he was temperate and gave "construction foreman" as his business. Judge Charles Brown, who presided at the trial and pronounced sentence, made no comment on the jury's finding.

A large force of police was scattered throughout the courthouse to guard Hickey. He was taken from the jail to the courthouse through the Delaware avenue tunnel and was accompanied by several deputies. The crowd was orderly and there was no demonstration. Arrangements were made to take Hickey to Auburn this afternoon.

Second Day Before Christmas

At the Hackett-Carhart Stores

Backed by a half-century-old reputation for integrity, Hackett-Carhart prices today—before Christmas—represent greater values than you will find in other stores long after New Year's day has passed.

The reason, oft-repeated, lies in the recent Hackett-Carhart receivership—and the settlement with creditors at 50 cents on the dollar. Precisely your average saving at the Hackett-Carhart stores today.

And, remember, the stocks are newer, the styles more advanced—the assortments wider, and more attractive—than you will find at any other New York stores.
